

 Niederwalddenkmal
etherland

DE.L.M.RR.1

Niederwalddenkmal

Description

The Niederwalddenkmal is a German monument built in the 19th century and located in the town of Rüdesheim am Rhein. The memorial was ordered by Kaiser Wilhelm I and built by sculptor Johannes Schilling and architect Karl Weißbach to commemorate the victory of Prussia and its allies over France in 1870-1871.

Metadata

- GPS Coordinates: 49.9810° N, 7.8999° E
- City: Rüdesheim am Rhein
- Country: Germany
- Landmarks: Monuments
- Cadastral Number: DE.L.M.RR.1